

SECRET

FILE COPY

1 February 1968

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Support

SUBJECT : Weekly Report of the Office of Training

25X1A6a

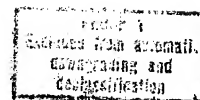

2. Special CI Course for Navy Considered a Success

A three-week special counterintelligence course for the Naval Investigative Service was completed on 26 January. Requested by the Navy and designed to increase the CI capability of one of the intelligence community's significant elements, the course received exceptionally high marks in critiques by class members. These non-Agency students repeatedly expressed their high regard for the competence of the Agency speakers.

3. External Training Nominees

Agency representatives in senior external and special interest

SECRET

SECRET

25X1A9a	[REDACTED]	Deputy Director/OSI	Brookings Institution Conference for Federal Executives on Business Operations - San Francisco and Los Angeles - week of 5 February (Robert Fuchs, Director/OF, canceled).
25X1A9a	[REDACTED]	DDS&T	Advanced Management Program - Harvard - 13 weeks starting 11 February.
25X1A9a	[REDACTED]	Deputy Chief of Support/AF	Program for Management Development - Harvard - 16 weeks, which began 28 January.
25X1A9a	[REDACTED]	NPIC	CSC Executive Seminar Center - Seminar on Management of Organizations - Kings Point, New York - 5-16 February.
25X1A9a	[REDACTED]	DSP and	CSC Executive Seminar in Planning
25X1A9a	[REDACTED]	DDS/OL (replacing Michael	Programming, and Budgeting at
25X1A9a	[REDACTED]	C/Planning Staff, OL)	University of Maryland, 5-23 February.
25X1A9a	[REDACTED]	DSI	Forty-third Class, Armed Forces
	[REDACTED]	, OC	Staff College, Norfolk, 5 February
	[REDACTED]	OSR and	-28 June.
	[REDACTED]	OS
	[REDACTED]	Chief, Authentication	Management Development Program
	[REDACTED]	and Graphics Group, TSD	for Federal Executives - USDA
			Graduate School - first phase begins
			1 February.

4. Program Assisted Instruction Moves Forward

The first of a series of quarterly reports of PAI progress in the Agency's adaptation of new educational technology in its training effort reveals that three programs have been completed and are being used; fourteen programs are in some phase of the development, testing.

2 SECRET

SECRET

and rewriting cycle. In most cases results of use have been favorable in terms of better instruction and better learning. Student reaction to the use of the programs has been generally good.

Completed programs include: "Role of Perception in Human Relations," a writing improvement vehicle titled "Banish Gobbledygook," and a German-language grammar item called "German Compound Past Tense." Other programs in development range from clerical filing to aerial photo interpretation.

5. Agency Speakers Shine at Senior Seminar

25X1A9a Feedback from [REDACTED] Agency members of the Senior Seminar in Foreign Policy, indicates uniformly favorable and enthusiastic response by the Seminar members to the 23 January "Day at CIA." All Agency speakers won high praise.

6. Non-Agency Briefings

During this reporting period, the following non-Agency briefings were provided:

25X1C8c

[REDACTED]

At Fort Holabird, 22 officers attending the Twentieth Senior

SECRET

SECRET

Foreign Officer Intelligence Course; briefing covered "The Nature and Significance of Strategic Intelligence." Students in the group represented Brazil (2), Ecuador (2), Greece (1), Laos (1), Malaysia (5), Morocco (1), Thailand (3), and Vietnam (7).

Also, 90 students at FSI orientation, "International Communism"; 33 participants in FSI's National Interdepartmental Seminar on "Communist Theory"; same subject presented to 14 Business Council for International Understanding members at American University; 85 Military Assistance Institute students, "Communist Bloc Economic and Military Aid"; and, 22 FSI students, "Impact and Implication of Sino-Soviet Conflict."

/s/
John Richardson
John Richardson
Director of Training

SECRET